

AR SCHOOL OF DANCE POLICY: TERMS & CONDITIONS

The Angela Rowe (AR) School of Dance aims to provide all those participating in activities with a high quality, safe and positive dance experience. As such we ask all participants to adhere to the terms and conditions stated below at all times:

ATTENDENCE

- Once enrolled that the space is continuous unless notice is provided and therefore you are not required to re-book your place each term.
- Once you have enrolled within a class you may only transfer for another if space is available.
- You must fill in a registration and required consent forms before attending any classes, in-person or online, to make teachers aware of any medical issues and to provide an emergency contact details.
- AR School of dance sets maximum attendance capacities for every session. These are based on the Health and Safety requirements of the designated space and style of class, and are also in place to ensure the delivery of a high quality dance class.
- AR School of dance reserves the right to substitute teachers, vary the advertised programme or cancel classes if necessary, without notification.
- AR School of Dance accepts no responsibility for any loss of property or personal injury.

PAYMENTS, BOOKING & CANCELLATION

- You must provide us with four weeks notice before the upcoming start of term date for any non-returners.
- If less than four weeks notice is provided, families will still be committed to pay up to the full term fee, unless in exceptional circumstances. The amount will be determined subject to when we have been notified.
- All fees - paid or expected - are non-refundable, unless inline with the above.
- Please refer to our COVID-19 Policy for any activity impacted as a result of lockdown, or a temporary closure due to a case of COVID19.
- Postage fee applies to the purchaser should you wish to have items sent to you opposed to collected from us.
- There are no booking fees for Term Fees, but additional wrap around activity sold via our website is subject to an additional charge.
